Part 103); the AML requirements of Regulation K of the Board of

WHEREAS, the New York Branch provides significant correspondent banking services to its respondent banks, including non-U.S. banks and the Bank’s non-U.S. branches and affiliates, and also conducts U.S. dollar funds transfer clearing, and it has been determined that there are compliance and risk management deficiencies at the New York Branch in these operational areas;

WHEREAS, it is the common goal of the Board of Governors, the Federal Reserve Bank of New York (the “Reserve Bank”), the Department, the Bank, and the New York Branch to ensure that the Bank and the New York Branch fully address all deficiencies in the New York Branch’s AML policies and procedures, customer due diligence practices, risk management processes, and internal control environment; and

WHEREAS, on December 25, 2006, the board of directors of the Bank, at a duly constituted meeting, adopted a resolution authorizing and directing Shuntaro Higashi, Senior Managing Director, and Tetsuya Kubo, Managing Director, to enter into this Written Agreement (the “Agreement”) on behalf of the Bank and the New York Branch, respectively, and consenting to compliance by the Bank, the New York Branch, and their institution-affiliated parties, as defined in sections 3(u) and 8(b)(4) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act, as amended (12 U.S.C. §§ 1813(u) and 1818(b)(4)), with each and every applicable provision of this Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Reserve Bank, the Department (collectively, the “Supervisors”), the Bank, and the New York Branch hereby agree as follows:

The purposes of the Management Review shall be to enhance the Bank's oversight of the New York Branch's BSA/AML compliance program in these business lines and to ensure the adequate staffing by qualified and trained personnel that is required for an effective control environment. The Management Review shall, at a minimum, address, consider, and include for the New York Branch's correspondent banking and funds transfer clearing business lines:

(b) At the conclusion of the Management Review, the Bank shall submit a written report to the Supervisors that includes the findings and conclusions of the Management

Review, and a description of specific actions that the Bank proposes to take, or has taken, to strengthen the management and oversight of the New York Branch's correspondent banking and funds transfer clearing business lines.

(c) Within 30 days of the submission of the written report required by paragraph 2(b), the Bank shall implement measures to ensure appropriate oversight of the New York Branch's BSA/AML compliance program, including, but not limited to, periodic management information reports sufficient to enable Bank management to assess the adequacy and effectiveness of the BSA/AML control infrastructure and compliance with applicable laws and regulations.

(c) for each customer who requires enhanced due diligence, procedures to:

(i) determine the appropriate documentation necessary to verify the identity and business activities of the customer;

(b) provisions for independent testing to be performed on a regular basis by qualified parties (which may include internal audit) who are independent of the Bank's and the New York Branch's business lines and compliance function, provided, however, that the first independent test of the New York Branch's BSA/AML compliance shall be conducted by a qualified independent firm acceptable to the Supervisors;

(c) procedures for the review of independent testing results by senior Bank and New York Branch management and escalation to the board of directors of the Bank in appropriate circumstances;

The plan shall also include a methodology and target date for determining that the transaction monitoring system is effective.

(b) Within 60 days of this Agreement, the Bank and the New York Branch shall jointly submit to the Supervisors acceptable written customer account and transaction monitoring policies and procedures that are designed to effectively manage legal and reputational risks and ensure compliance with regulatory requirements. The acceptable policies and procedures shall take effect upon the determination by a competent independent outside consultant acceptable to the Supervisors that the improved transaction monitoring system is fully effective. Documentation to support the determination that the improved transaction monitoring system is fully effective shall be retained for subsequent supervisory review.

Interim Transaction Monitoring System

7. Within 30 days of this Agreement, the Bank and the New York Branch shall jointly submit to the Supervisors acceptable written interim transaction monitoring procedures for the New York Branch that shall remain in effect until the independent outside consultant, described in paragraph 6, confirms, through the performance of appropriate tests, that the improved transaction monitoring system is fully effective. These interim procedures shall be designed to monitor the transactions of the New York Branch so that it can comply with applicable suspicious activity reporting requirements.

Transaction Review

8. (a) Within 30 days of this Agreement, the Bank and the New York Branch shall jointly engage a qualified independent firm (the "Independent Firm") acceptable to the Supervisors to conduct a review of account and transaction activity during the time period between January 1, 2006 and the date of this Agreement to determine whether suspicious activity involving accounts or transactions at, by, or through the New York Branch was properly identified and reported in accordance with applicable suspicious activity reporting regulations (the "Transaction Review") and to prepare a written report detailing the Independent Firm's findings (the "Independent Firm's Report").

(b) Based on the Supervisors' evaluation of the results of the Transaction Review, the Supervisors may direct the New York Branch to engage the Independent Firm to conduct an additional review for the time period from January 1, 2005 to December 31, 2005, with the scope and methodology for that time period to be determined in the same manner as described in paragraph 9 of this Agreement and to prepare a report detailing the findings of the additional review.

11. Throughout the Transaction Review, the Bank and the New York Branch shall ensure that all matters or transactions required to be reported that have not been previously reported are reported in accordance with applicable rules and regulations.

Approval, Implementation, and Progress Reports

12. (a) The Bank and the New York Branch shall jointly submit written programs, plans, policies, procedures, and an engagement letter that are acceptable to the Supervisors within the applicable time periods set forth in paragraphs 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, and 9 of this Agreement.
